RECRUITMENT ORIENTATION GUIDE

This handbook has been developed as a resource for those men and women who have indicated an interest in becoming a volunteer member of the Fire Department. Participation as a volunteer member of the Fire Service will bring personal rewards, satisfaction, raise self –esteem and give you a tremendous sense of accomplishment for a job well done. Your involvement will also provide your community with a valuable service that has the potential to touch us all.

However, service in our department requires serious commitment. The High Prairie Volunteer Fire Department is a 24 hour-a-day service that provides emergency fire service, rescue and other related services to the town of High Prairie and surrounding area. These services are provided by our highly trained and well-equipped volunteer fire department members. Our volunteer firefighters receive pay for some of the services they provide but as well volunteer many hours to our community.

Your decision to join should not be made quickly. This recruitment handbook has been developed to provide the information needed to help you make that decision. Making a commitment to serve as a volunteer is a serious decision, we ask that you take the time to read this booklet and get the facts of what is involved in being a member of the Fire Department.

Once you understand what is involved in being a member of the Fire Department, we hope you will find that you are able to make the commitment that our community requires. The service provided by Volunteer Firefighters is truly valuable to the citizens of our municipality and the people travelling through. We hope that you can contribute to the cause.

Further information can be obtained by contacting the Fire Chief or the Deputy Fire Chief of the High Prairie Fire Department.

GOALS OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

The mission of our fire department is to protect life, property and businesses from the effects of fires and disasters and to provide rescue services to motorists traveling on our highways. A significant portion of our mission can be accomplished through fire prevention, education and emergency preparedness programs and when called upon, we will provide a safe, rapid, professional and compassionate response to all emergencies.

THE NATURE OF OUR BUSINESS

Firefighting is one of the most diverse and challenging professions known today. It is this diversity that inspires men and women to enter the service, both as volunteers and career employees. The fact that your skills may be needed at any time of day, seven days a week, in any kind of weather, and very often under stressful and emotional circumstances makes our contribution to our profession very personally rewarding. This is especially true in our small community where we know everyone.

Two basic purposes of the fire service are first to prevent fire or emergencies from occurring. This is done through fire prevention inspections, fire safety education, and code enforcement programs. Secondly, we are here to prepare ourselves to control fires or emergencies should prevention not prevail. This is done through education, training, pre-incident planning, more training, and more training, state of the art equipment and even more training. We will train not until we can get it right, but until we can never get it wrong.

This type of work is not for everyone. You will need more than just a desire to help people. You also need courage, dedication, assertiveness, and a willingness to learn new skills and face new challenges. The Fire Department is not for the meek or timid or for those who lose control of their emotions during a crisis. Our service is one which calls on its members to perform hot, sweaty, dirty, strenuous work, often in uncertain hazardous environments. There is also exposure to very traumatic circumstances where a fragile balance of life has been determined by circumstances that have inflicted great harm upon a person. In our occupation we often see the worst of what life can deal to a person.

The personal rewards and satisfaction received from being involved in a Fire Department are often beyond description. There is a sense of accomplishment after controlling a building fire, a compassion for accident victims and fulfillment in teaching fire safety.

The bottom line in our business is measured by the prevention and reduction of loss of life, pain and suffering, and property damage that we have in our service. We are here to prepare for one reason and that is to provide a service to residents of our communities.

If you feel you have what it takes to fill these boots and meet the challenges of our business, we welcome you to apply to join our team.

Training and Participation

Over the years, the fire service has evolved into a public safety agency providing highly technical and diverse services. The public has come to rely on the Fire Department as the “First Responder” not only when life and property are threatened by manmade and natural disasters, but for seemingly smaller problems as well.

To ensure that all members of the Fire Department are prepared to deliver the best level of services required, training standards have been developed to provide each member with the needed skills, knowledge, and abilities necessary to deliver fire and emergency services to the citizens of the municipality.

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS – VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

- A) All volunteers entering the system must participate in the training program taught by departmental instructors regardless of whether the individual has prior training or experience.
- B) New recruits must attend the mandatory Recruit intake training held as assigned.
- C) Volunteers who are successful in the recruitment process will be on a 6-month probationary period. During this time, new recruits may be dismissed at ANY TIME and for ANY REASON. After 36 hours of training and 6 months time accrued, these volunteers will be voted on for full JR member acceptance
- D) At the recommendation of membership, probationary terms may be extended for another 6-month period.
